For

Offer superb detail and sense of scale; excellent value

Against

Leak sound so no use for commuting

Grado's single foray into portable headphones (it specialises in hi-fi cans) has received much love in pages of What Hi-Fi Sound and Vision.

The iGrados are open-sounding and clear, with terrific punch and tonal balance.

They leak sound a great deal, so they're not for use on a crowded train, but for sound quality these are unbeatable at the price.
